MEMBERSHIP OF THE STUDENT GUILD

Under Section 44 (6) of the Curtin University of Technology Act 1966 (as amended), a student becomes a member of the Student Guild on enrolment, unless the student elects at the time of enrolment not to become a member. A student may also resign at any time as a member of the Student Guild.

The Guild provides a range of amenities and services for all students of Curtin University of Technology. For more information on the services provided by the Guild refer to http://www.guild.curtin.edu.au/

PROVISION OF PERSONAL DETAILS TO THE GUILD

In order that the Guild may provide services to its members, your name, student ID number, preferred contact address, home phone number, gender, year of birth (not date of birth), course of study and campus location will be made available to the Guild. These details will remain confidential.

As outline above, you may elect not to become a member of the Guild at the time of enrolment or may resign from the Guild at any time after enrolment. If you elect not to become a member, your details will not be provided to the Guild. If you resign from the Guild, the Guild will no longer have access to your details and you will cease to be eligible for membership benefits.

If you do not wish to become a member of the Student Guild, you will need to complete the election below to not to become a member. The completed form must be lodged immediately at Student Central.

ELECTION NOT TO BECOME A MEMBER OF THE STUDENT GUILD

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the information above. Pursuant to Section 44 (7) of the Curtin University of Technology Act 1966 (as amended), I hereby elect not to become a member of the Curtin Student Guild.
