

Request for Review of Academic Status

If you have been placed on Terminated status and have experienced exceptional circumstances you have the right of review and the right of appeal regarding the decision. You must lodge a request for review before you will be able to progress to a formal appeal.

You will need to demonstrate how your results have been affected by circumstances outside of your control.

To request a review of decision to terminate from course, this form and any accompanying documentation must be lodged to the Examinations and Progression Management Office no later than 20 working days from the date of the Official Communication advising you of your course termination.

Information regarding Academic Status and how to appeal is described at the following website:
<http://students.curtin.edu.au/administration/enrolment/status.cfm>

Once you have submitted this form, you should continue to attend class until the outcome is determined. Notification of the Request for Review outcome will be sent to you as an OC via OASIS.
