ACADEMIC INFORMATION

On-line timetable

Online time table: unb.ca/schedules/timetable
Undergraduate students: unb.ca/calendar/undergraduate/
Graduate students: unb.ca/gradschl/calendar/

Undergraduate students must take at least 3 courses to maintain full-time status and are allowed to take up to 6 courses in one term.

Course registration

In order to register in the course, you must first activate your UNB E-Services. Go to https://my.unb.ca. Please click on "Activate your UNB IT Services". You will need both your UNB student number and your UNB login information (issued with your letter of acceptance).

Take care to read the instructions about the password requirement carefully – it’s quite specific.

Once you have activated your E-Services, you will have access to the UNB portal and a lot of information which you can look through.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Medical Insurance

Please note that you must purchase UNB’s International Health Insurance regardless of what other health coverage that you may have from your home country. For more information see: guard.me/UNB

Additionally, all fee paying students are, also, automatically enrolled in the student health and dental plans. See wespeakstudent.com for coverage and opting-out information.

The mandatory UNB’s International Health Insurance and the student health and dental are different plans.

FREDERICTON CAMPUS

Off-campus Residence
The UNB student union publishes an Off-Campus Handbook: unb.ca/fredericton/studentservices/resources/pdf/as/offcampushandbook.pdf. The handbook covers things such as finding a place to live and your rights and responsibilities. If you are planning to live off campus, we recommend that you find temporary accommodations for your first few nights and that you do not sign a lease without having actually visited the place.

On-campus Residence
Suite, Special Single, Single, Special Double, Double, Multiple rooms are available. Apply online through your e-services (https://my.unb.ca) and pay your deposit as soon as possible after you receive your letter of acceptance. Rooms are assigned based on availability and deposit paid date. If room type is more important for you than house, please do specify so when applying. Singles are mostly available in McLeod house.

Check-in and check out dates are indicated on the residence contract available at unb.ca/fredericton/residence/resources/pdf/rescontract.pdf Early arrivals and late departures are possible for an additional fee per day. For detailed residence fees see:
unb.ca/financialservices/students/residencefees/fredericton.html

TUITION, FEES and EXPENSES
unb.ca/money matters/tuitionandfees/

Books, equipment & supplies: $500 - $750

Miscellaneous (Clothing, Laundry, etc): $500
Mandatory International Health insurance: $265 per term
Residence with meal plan (per term): $4,500—$7,577 (2017 rates)

Exchange students pay tuition to their home university and do not pay tuition to UNB.

Fee-Paying or Direct Enrolment students pay tuition to UNB. UNB will charge a discounted international differential fee of 17505/term (2018 rate) on top of domestic tuition and fees.

SAINST JOHN CAMPUS

On and Off-campus Residence
UNB’s Saint John campus is located in the southeastern part of the picturesque province of New Brunswick on the Bay of Fundy on the East Coast of Canada. The small and welcoming campus overlooks two beautiful rivers, and is located minutes from uptown Saint John. A close-knit community with around 2,500 students, the campus offers individual attention and personal services to its diverse student population. Saint John has all the amenities of a large urban centre, while maintaining the charm of a small city. The city is known for its historical architecture; the City Market where you can enjoy a cozy Saturday morning brunch, shop and eat. You can also choose to live off-campus and be part of the friendly and local community in the uptown area within walking distance to cozy restaurants, cafés shops and the harbour. The Off-Campus Housing Office can help with listings and housing suggestions. Please visit unb.ca/saintjohn/studentservices/housing to learn more.

Orientation
During Welcome Week, you will receive important information about studying at UNB Saint John and meet other new and current students, who will help you get settled in. The same session is offered each day, you only need to attend one of the days.

Airport Pick-Up
UNB Saint John will provide airport pick-up at the Saint John YSJ airport for students arriving in the Fall term. Details will be provided to you with your acceptance letter.
